YOUTH CRIME WORKSHOP
18 JUNE 2019

11:00 – 11:20 Welcome
Matteo Sandi (CEP, LSE) and Theodore Koutmeridis (Glasgow)

11:20 – 12:40 Evidence Session 1
Presentations: 30 min / Discussion: 10 min

Ria Ivandic (CEP, LSE) “Jihadi Attacks, Media and Local Hate Crime”

Steve Mello (Princeton) “Speed Trap or Poverty Trap? Fines, Fees, and Financial Wellbeing”

12:40 – 13:40 Lunch Break

13:40 – 15:40 Evidence Session 2
Presentations: 30 min / Discussion: 10 min

Livia Menezes (Leicester) “Violence and Human Capital Investments”

Arnaud Philippe (Bristol) “Learning by doing... or watching others. How do criminals learn the criminal law”

Ruben Poblete Cazenave (UCL) “Crime and Punishment: Do politicians in power receive special treatment in courts? Evidence from India”

15:40 – 16:15 Tea and Coffee Break

16:15 – 17:15 Keynote Talk: Randi Hjalmarsson (Gothenburg)
“The Impact of the First Professional Police Forces on Crime”

17:15 – 18:15 Panel Discussion
Chair: Matteo Sandi (CEP, LSE)
“Policing, Policy and Juvenile Crime”

Gary Chimuzinga (Home Office)
Louise Puddefoot (MET Police Service of London)
Hayley Webb (MET Police Service of London)
Tom Kirchmaier (CEP, LSE)
Will Hitch (MET Police Service of London)
Matthew Sandford (MET Police Service of London)

Note: This joint CEP (LSE) and University of Glasgow event is organised by Dr Theodore Koutmeridis and Dr Matteo Sandi and it is funded via the “Behaviour, Structure and Interventions” research network at the University of Glasgow.