

Skills for all
research programme

CENTRE for ECONOMIC PERFORMANCE

ESRC FUNDED SEMINAR SERIES

How to motivate (demotivated) 14-16 year olds, with special reference to work related education and training

Seminar 2 Comparative Perspectives

Friday 14 February 2003

Joint CEP, LSE, and NFER seminar series, organised by Skills for All programme. The Skills for All programme is supported by the Esmée Fairbairn Foundation. The Skills for All research programme can be found at <http://cep.lse.ac.uk/programs/skills>

The seminar series is co-ordinated by Howard Gospel (Kings College London and CEP), Hilary Steedman (CEP), and Sheila Stoney (NFER).

Venue: Conference Room, Centre for Economic Performance, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, Aldwych.

Schedule

10.30	Coffee
11.00-12.00	Andreas Schleicher (OECD) 'PISA, engagement and motivation, precursors for performance and destinations'
12.00-1.00	Cathy Stasz (Rand Europe) 'Motivating (demotivated) 14-16 year olds: scope for the work-related curriculum: A US perspective'
1.00-2.00	Lunch – to be held in the CEP Social Space
2.00-3.00	Julia Whitburn, 'Perspectives on Switzerland, based on NIESR research'
3.00-3.30	General Discussion
3.30-	Tea